*Commentary and Q&A with the Director and Producer Dr Vildan
Mahmutoğlu, Galatasaray University, Turkey*

Geraniums is a short documentary exploring the displacement experiences of third-generation refugees from Elbasan, Çatalca, after the Lausanne Population Exchange. By combining personal testimonies with interviews from the Lausanne Refugees Foundation, the film turns individual memory into collective narrative. Using the geranium as a metaphor, it highlights both the fragility of exile and the resilience of re-rooting.

PLEASE NOTE THE SCREENING WILL BE ON LOOP EVERY 30 MINUTES

Lozan Nüfus Mübadelesi’nin ardından Çatalca Elbasan köyüne yerleşen mübadillerin üçüncü kuşaktan aktardıkları zorunlu göç deneyimlerini konu alan kısa belgesel film Sardunyalar, bireysel hafızaları kolektif bir anlatıya dönüştürmeyi amaçlamaktadır. Filmde, mübadillerin göç sürecine dair tanıklıkları ile Lozan Mübadilleri Vakfı ile yapılan görüşmelerden kesitler bir araya getirilerek dönemin görsel bir temsili sunulmaktadır. Sardunyalar, gündelik yaşamın en basit öğelerinden biri olan sardunya metaforu üzerinden göçün kırılğanlığını ve yeniden kök salma gücünü görünür kılar.

Teaching migration and health is expanding globally, but educators often work in isolation despite shared conceptual and ethical challenges. This interdisciplinary field spans medicine, social sciences, and law. Designing pedagogically sound, empirically grounded courses that reflect migrant experiences is complex. This interactive workshop unites educators to exchange practices, priorities, and integration strategies. Participants will explore course structure, key themes (access, mental health, borders, inequalities), and community-engaged learning. The session fosters cross-disciplinary dialogue, generates teaching innovations, and builds collaboration toward inclusive, critically engaged pedagogy.
